Panaji, dated: 12-11-2008.

A WARD

1. In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 10 (1)(d) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the Government of Goa by Order dated 12-03-2003 bearing No. 28/4/2003-Lab/924 referred the following dispute for adjudication to the Industrial Tribunal of Goa, Panaji-Goa.

SCHEDULE

"(1) Whether the action of the Management of M/s. Trade Wings Ltd., Panaji-Goa in transferring S/Shri Gajanan Ganpat Palkar and Chandrakant Keulekar to Kolkota and Patna respectively, is legal and unjustified ?

(2) If not, what relief the workpersons are entitled to ?"

2. On receipt of the reference a case was registered under No. IT/13/2003 and registered A/D notices were issued to the parties. In pursuance of the said notice, the parties put in their appearance. The Workmen/Party I (for short "workmen") filed their statement of claim at Exhibit 3. Facts of the case in brief as pleaded by the workmen are that they were employed with the Employer/Party II (for short "Employer"). The workmen, Shri Gajanan Palkar was confirmed with effect from 01-04-1991 as a Junior Assistant and Chandrakant Keulekar a Clerk was confirmed in the services with effect from 01-04-2004. They contended that the Employer were paying bonus and also yearly increments to them every year however, for the year 2000-2001, the Employer failed to pay bonus and to release yearly increments of the workmen. They contended that the Employer also failed to pay salaries of the workmen for the period from October, 2001 till March, 2002. In spite of repeated request by them, on the contrary, the Employer transferred them to Kolkota and Patna branch vide their letter dated 05-04-2002. They contended that the said transfer order issued as and by way of punishment with malicious motive in order to take the revenge on them. They contended that the said transfer orders are clearly malafide and are intended to harass and victimize them as it is without any reasons. They contended that the said transfer order does not mention about their service conditions, provisions for accommodation, travel and food and due to the said transfer great injustice, prejudice and irreparable loss has been caused to them. They contended that after issuing the above transfer order, the employer has recruited new workers in their places and they have been kept out of employment. They contended that they are entitled to resume at their original place of working with Party II establishment. They finally prayed that the transfer order issued to them by the Party II be declared as illegal, unjustified, ultra-virus and bad in law and be revoked. They also prayed that they be allowed to resume at their original place of work with all the back wages and continuity in services.

3. The Employer/Party II filed its written statement on 15-03-2004 which is at Exhibit 9 objecting to the claim statement filed by the workmen. The Employer objected the claim statement of the workmen as preliminary objection stating that the issue of validity or otherwise the transfer is not an Industrial Dispute and therefore this court has no jurisdiction. The Employer stated that they operate a Travel Agency, having its Head Office at 30-K Dubhash Marg, Kalghoda, Fort-Mumbai-23 and branches in various parts of India. They however admitted that both the workmen joined in their services as Probationers. They stated that the workman, Shri Gajanan Palkar was confirmed in services with effect from 07-05-1991 and the workman, Shri Chandrakant Keulekar was confirmed in services with effect from 05-05-1994. The Employer also admitted that letter dated 05-04-2002 transferred the workman, Mr. Gajanan Palkar to the branch of the Company at Calcutta and was advised to handover the charge to Mr. Desmond in Goa with effect from 11-04-2002 and was further advised to resume duties at Calcutta branch from 13-04-2002 as Office Assistant. The Employer further admitted that another letter dated 05-04-2002, transferred Mr. Chandrakant Keulekar to their branch of the Company at Patna and was advised to handover charge to Mr. Desmond in Goa with effect from 11-04-2002 and resume duties at Patna from 13-04-2002 as Office Assistant. They stated that in accordance with the terms of appointment, the services of the workmen were transferable to any location in India at the direction of the Management depending on the requirement and exigency of work. They further contended that the transfer of workmen being an incident of service, the transferee is duty bound to report to the place of transfer. They contended that the workmen instead of reporting to the place of transfer defied the orders of transfer dated 05-04-2002 and refused to report to the place of transfer. They contended that the transfer of the workmen was affected due to exigency of work and shortage of manpower at its Calcutta and Patna branch. They contended that its business at Calcutta and Patna branch is similar to the business carried on by its Goa branch and that they have no other travel division in Goa. They contended that since the year 1993, the Employer Company became financially unsound mainly due to accumulated losses over a period of time, however, they were paying bonus to its workmen and on account of financial crisis there was delay in payment of bonus to the workmen for the accounting year, 2000. They contended that there is no provision for any yearly increments as claimed by the workmen and therefore question of failure to pay yearly increment does not arise. They categorically denied that the dues of the workmen are pending payment. They also denied that the salaries of the workmen have been left unpaid as to any of the workman for any period including the period from October, 2001 to March, 2002 and hence the question of replying to the demand letter dated 03-04-2002 did not arise. They therefore prayed for the dismissal of the reference. Thereafter the workmen filed their Rejoinder on 08-04-2004 which is at Exhibit 10 denying the case of the Employer.

4. On the basis of the pleadings filed by the respective parties, this court framed the following issues:

- 1 Whether the Party I/Union proves that the transfer of the workmen is malafide and by way of punishment for claiming their pending dues ?
- 2 Whether the Party I/Union proves that the transfer of the workman, Shri Gajanan Palkar at Kolkata and of Shri Chandrakant Keulekar at Patna is illegal and unjustified ?
- 3 Whether the Party II proves that the dispute referred is not an industrial dispute and hence this Tribunal has no jurisdiction to try and decide the dispute ?
- 4 Whether the workmen are entitled to any relief ?
- 5 What Award ?

5. Thereafter the case was fixed for evidence of the workmen. The workman, Shri Gajanan Palkar also filed his Affidavit-in-Evidence and his further examination-in-chief was recorded and case was adjourned and fixed for the cross-examination of the Advocate for Party II to 09-04-2008. On 09-04-2008, the Id. Advocate M. S. Bandodkar appearing for the Party II orally seeks time for an amicable settlement, which the parties could arrive on 12-11-2008.

6. On 12-11-2008, both the parties alongwith their respective representatives remained present and filed a joint application duly signed by the respective parties alongwith their respective representatives stating that they have settled the subject matter of dispute in the above reference by arriving at a settlement on certain terms as stated therein and therefore prayed that an award be passed in terms of the settlement dated 12-11-2008.

7. I have carefully gone through the joint application dated 12-11-2008 at Exhibit 20 filed by both the parties and I am satisfied that the terms of settlement is in the mutual interest of the workmen and the Employer. It will also help in restoring the peaceful and harmonious industrial relations. Therefore, I accept the submissions made by the parties and pass the award in terms of the settlement dated 12-11-2008 at Exhibit 20. With this I proceed to pass the following Order:

ORDER

- 1 The dispute as to whether the action of the Management of M/s. Trade Wings Ltd., Panaji-Goa in transferring S/Shri Gajanan Palkar and Chandrakant Keulekar to Kolkota and Patna respectively, is legal and justified, does not survive.
- 2 The dispute as to whether to what relief the workmen are entitled does not survive.
- 3 No order as to costs.
- 4 The Award be submitted to the Government of Goa as per the provisions contained under Section 15 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.
